

Disclosure Policy and Procedures

The Svetlana Masgutova Educational Institute® LLC believes it is the right of course participants to know of any commercial interest that the LLC and/or the instructor may have in any products or services mentioned during the activities of the course.

The Svetlana Masgutova Educational Institute® LLC will provide this information to the course participants in the following methods:

On the Masgutova Method™ website (www.masgutovamethod.com) the participant will have the ability to read the full disclosure policy and a statement of any commercial interest the LLC or the instructor may have in the products and services mentioned during the course.

All marketing materials for the course will provide participants a statement on who to email to have this disclosure form emailed to them with the specific disclosure information on the course in question.

The instructor at the beginning of the course will make a statement indicating any commercial interest that the LLC or the instructor may have in the products or services mentioned during the course.